on a rock spur, over 820 meters above sea level. Left just like it was used to be, Elcito will take visitors back in time. In the centre the stone houses, recently renovated made space around the remains of an ancient medieval castle, once erected to defend the nearby Abbey of Santa Maria in Vallefucina. Not far away, there is the vast highland of Canfaieto (1.100 m.) with its centuries old beech woods. Return to the hotel for dinner and accomodation.

Day 3

Breakfast at the hotel, move to the lovely medieval village of Serrapetrona, famous for the Vernaccia a particular DOCG sparkling red wine, an excellence of Marche's wines. Every year takes place the event "Appassimenti Aperti" to celebrate the autochthonous grape "Vernaccia Nera". The producers, will be with their stands in the square of the village, a festive and characteristic meeting place with music, markets and zero kilometer gastronomic delicacies. Every year this event is repeated: visitors can see the drying rooms full of bunches, and hear stories that tell of an ancient art of winemaking, a village that is covered with autumn colors and intense aromas of fine wines. During the event tourist can visit the exhibition "Fossili, il passato ritrovato". Worth visiting is also the Church of San Francesco that houses the "Crocifissione" (by Anonimo Marchigiano, dated 1180) and the polyptych executed by Lorenzo d'Alessandro at the end of the 15th century. During "Appassimenti Aperti" will be possible to visit the Church of Santa Maria in Piazza, reopened in 2018 after the restoration works. Free lunch. End of services.
